We, the Senior Class of 1964. dedicate this yearbook to our parents.

Your faithfulness and willing desire to help us all through our school years will never be forgotten. The guidance you have given us through these many years can not be measured in words alone.

We all know that you, Mother and Father, went without something you wanted so we could have a new dress or a new suit for our extra-curricular activities.

Neither can we forget the many trips you made to take us here and there. We know this took much of your valuable time.

It cost you parents a great deal of money to help us this far along in our education, and to you we owe a great debt of gratitude.

With this small token of appreciation, we the Senior Class of 1964, wish to say "Thank You" to all of our parents for the untiring patience and interest you have shown throughout our school years.

The school plant has enlarged. The high school has had two additions and a new elementary building has been added. An addition to Old Fort's playground has been established with the P. M. Gillmor Athletic Field.

To these men, the Old Fort School community is indebted for their time, interest, and hard work they have given to make Old Fort School one of the best schools in Seneca County.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior class of '64 of Old Fort School in Pleasant Township, of Seneca County, in the State of Ohio, of the United States of America, do hereby ordain and establish this, our last will and testament. We direct that our debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon after death as the money can be appropriated from our estates, if you can get it.

To the Faculty, we give the promise we will leave, if we pass.

To the Seniors of '65, we leave our superior basketball playing ability in hopes they will use it to win.

To the Juniors of '65, we leave our ability to put on a junior play.

To the Sophomores of '65, we leave our top lockers to the short girls and bottom lockers to the tall boys.

To the Freshmen of '65, we leave our vivacious personalities and charm, knowing this will help them through high school.

With the uttermost confidence in legal ability, we, the members of the Senior class do hereby appoint Roger Goddard, sole executor of said estate, and trust he will properly carry out our request upon our departure.

I, Daryl Bowers, will my ability of gum chewing to anyone who wants it, providing it's outside of Old Fort School.

I, Kenneth Haack, will my speed ability (on the track that is) to Lynda Wilson, in hopes that she will try running instead of driving. It's a lot safer.

I, Agnes Gonzalez, will my typing eraser to anyone in the first year typing class, in hopes that she doesn't have to use it as often as I did.

I, Edna Tracy, will my ability to go steady with a guy from Columbian to Martha Adelsperger who already has a good start.

CLASS PROPHECY

The year is 1982. Having been just paid a visit by Michael Anthony, I went to the bank and cashed my check for $1,000,000. I then decided that my first goal would be to tour the 49th and 50th states of the Union. I went to the travel agency and got my non-stop flight ticket to Juneau, Alaska.

At 7:45 the next morning, I boarded my plane. I was told that the plane was brand new and had been designed by DAVID PEAKE, and MARTIN PUFFENBERGER, former classmates. When questioning my safety while aboard, the stewardess told me that the very able mechanic, RAYMOND STEINMETZ, would be standing by at all times.

Feeling a little insecure, I sat down, buckled my safety belt, and prepared for take off. I spotted KEN HAACK'S farm as we flew over it. An hour later, I encountered a severe headache. The stewardess summoned the nurse, whom I recognized to be KATHY SHARP.

At 12:00 my plane landed in Juneau, Alaska. At the airport, I saw SAM SAGER approaching with an armload of furs. Following him was his truck driver, JIM MAGERS. After chatting with Sam and Jim, I decided that the warmer climate was for me. I chartered a ship bound for Hawaii. I met the engineers, once aboard, and discovered them to be DOUGLAS RUNION and ALAN FIELD. They told me that MIKE PENCE was the ship's mechanic.

As I walked down the corridor, I passed the beauty shop, operated by MARY LEE DuMOND. At the time, PEGGY BROWN, the Social Director, was having her hair styled. Just then, BARBARA BASTIAN, the ship's nurse, came by. The next three days were spent talking with my former classmates.

When we reached Waikiki, I went to the barber shop and found the barber to be MIKE McCORMACK. He told me that the beauty salon, next door, was owned and operated by KAREN ATWATER and AGNES GONZALEZ. Mike said that if I would go to the Waikiki High School, I would find a few more former classmates. When I arrived at the school, I went to the office and was greeted by the secretary, EDNA TRACY. She took me to the Home Economics room where SUSAN NICKEL was showing the girls how to make white sauce. Next, we went to room 10, and found BETTY ZIEGLER teaching Democracy. In the library, we found ANNE HENRETTY sorting books.

On the way downtown, I was exceeding the 80 mile an hour speed limit and was picked up. In court, lawyer TOM WILLIAMS defended me. After being found not guilty, I chatted with VIVIAN MILLER, who was the clerk of courts.

As I was going out the door, I met MIKE HARTENSTEIN, the public accountant, who said he was going to have a business firm put on trial because their books weren't balancing.

As I was walking down the street, I stumbled over a roller skate and had to be taken to the hospital. PAT SUFFECOOL, the head nurse, took me to the emergency room where Doctor DAVID HAUGH put a splint on my arm.

Then I hailed a taxi to take me around the country side. We passed GARY OAKLEAF'S pineapple farm. I stopped, only to find him talking with DAVID DeRAN, the Farm Economist.

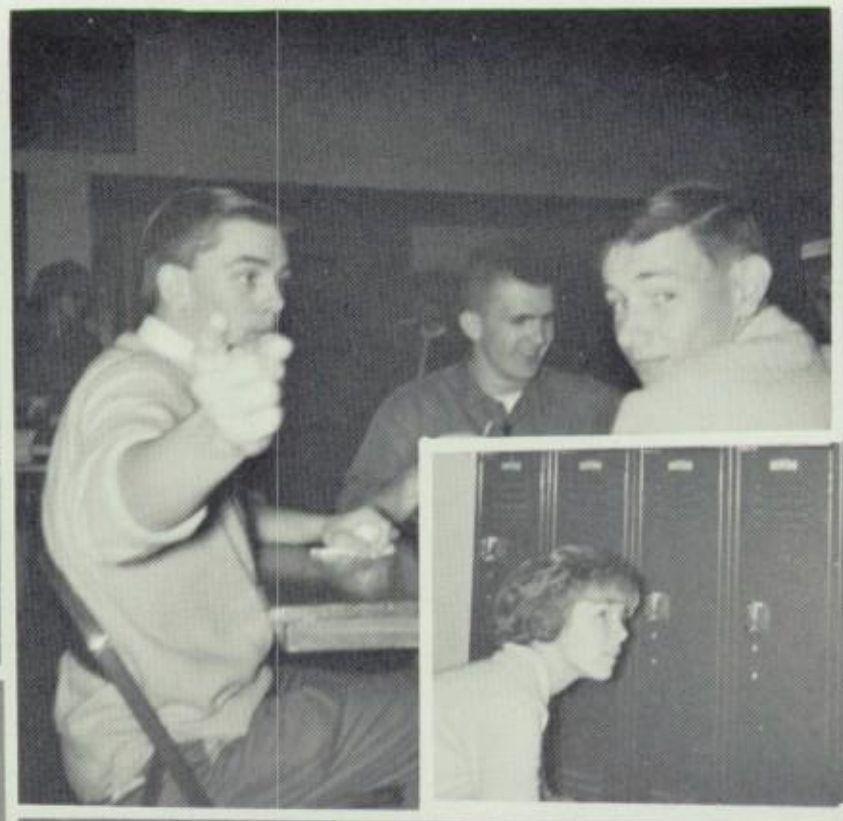
In downtown Waikiki, I visited the Bowers's Tool and Dye Company, owned and operated by DARYL BOWERS. I chatted with him for awhile and then his truck driver, BILL SPELLER, pulled up and I recognized him as another former classmate.

The next day, I boarded my plane, bound for San Francisco, California. Immediately after my arrival, I headed for the Air Force Base to visit PAUL STEINMETZ and BOB LAIRD. Much to my surprise, I found DICK CURNS, now a carpenter, was there also, having been hired to build a new barracks.

I was now homeward bound. While flying over Idaho, I spotted JIM TERRY'S potato farm.

My journey was now complete; I had seen every one of my former classmates and visited the 49th and 50th states. Having hit my first goal, I decided that my next one would be ???????????--I'll never tell.



●●●● CLASS HISTORY ●●●●

On September 6, 1953, twelve years ago, 67 very excited children joined together in the two first grade class rooms. Our path to education was started with Mrs. Mosier and Miss Day leading the way.

Of the original 67 members, 23 still remain to graduate. They are: Karen Atwater, Barbara Bastian, Margaret Brown, Mary Lee DuMond, Agnes Gonzalez, Anne Henretty, Vivian Miller, Susan Nickel, Patricia Suffecool, Betty Ziegler, David DeRan, Alan Field, David Haugh, James Magers, Michael McCormack, Gary Oakleaf, David Peake, Michael Pence, Douglas Runion, Sam Sager, Raymond Steinmetz, Wilbur Speller, and James Terry.

Our second grade classes were taught by Mrs. Witter and Miss Shaffer. This year we learned all about writing. No one joined our class this year.

In the third grade, Miss Gammill and Mrs. Good led us to the next step of our journey. Here we learned how to multiply. Kenneth Haack joined us this year.

In the fourth grade, Mrs. Sanford and Mrs. Snyder taught our struggling group. Michael Hartenstein joined our struggle to reach the top.

The fifth grade was a memorable year, for this year we were taught by Mr. Bare. He taught us the value of getting along with other people, a very essential asset. No new additions were reported.

The sixth grade was led upward by Mrs. Cloutier. Illustrated poems were a major part of our work. Linda Moyer was our new addition.

Miss Robinson directed us in the seventh grade. This was a very big year for us because it was our first year of Junior High School. Richard Curns and Robert Laird joined our cause.

Our eighth grade was led by Mr. Mehaffey. This grade was a stepping stone into high school. Paul Steinmetz, Daryl Bowers, and Edna Tracy helped to swell our ranks.

Our Freshman class was led by Mr. Lutz. This year we were formally initiated into high school. Martin Puffenberger and Diane Mowery joined us for initiation. We were now ready to participate in high school activities. Our class officers were: Michael McCormack, President; David Haugh, Vice-President; David Peake, Treasurer; Diane Mowery, Secretary.

The Sophomore class was under the direction of Mr. Nichols. Kathy Sharp joined us this year. Our class officers were: Kenneth Haack, President; Michael McCormack, Vice-President; and Diane Mowery, Secretary-Treasurer.

Our Junior class was headed by Mrs. Newman and Mr. Austermiller. Our class play, "Meet Me In St. Louis," and our class rings were the highlights for this year. Our officers were: David Haugh, President; Kenneth Haack, Vice-President; Patricia Suffecool, Secretary; and Michael Hartenstein, Treasurer.

The Senior class was also under the direction of Mrs. Newman. Mr. Goddard was our Co-Advisor. Much of our time was spent working on the annual and the class play, "Our Hearts Were Young And Gay." Our class officers for this year were: David Haugh, President; Kenneth Haack, Vice-President; Patricia Suffecool, Secretary; and Mike Hartenstein, Treasurer. Tom Williams joined forces with us this year.

Our next step is to receive our diplomas. From there we will separate, each going his own way to find his life's work. For some there is further education. Others will find jobs. But behind us all will be the pleasant memories of our school days at Old Fort School.

I, Ray Steinmetz, will my basketball ability and build to Doug Picciuto.

I, Betty Ziegler, will my natural curly hair to Linda Sanford, so she won't have to put her hair up every night and can sleep more comfortably.

I, Jim Terry, will my ability to pass the first bookkeeping test with a perfect score to Tom Nickel, in hopes that he can pass the rest.

I, Tom Williams being of sound state of mind hereby will to Ronnie Haugh all my little French and German sayings.

We, the senior class of Old Fort School, do hereby sign this our last will and testament in the eyes of our witnesses:

WITNESSETH:

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

On April 19, 1963, the Juniors presented the play, "Meet Me In St. Louis." Its setting was in St. Louis during the late Spring. The play was directed by Miss Susan Baine.

The four Smith sisters were very excited about the World's Fair that was going to open right there in St. Louis. But then Father told them that he had been offered a better job in New York and that they would soon be moving. At this, the girls united for action. Although the family almost went to jail, the girls won the battle and their father was offered a better job right in St. Louis.

The play was very delightful and comical. We feel that this was one of the most successful plays that Old Fort has ever presented!

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

On November 1, 1963, the Seniors presented the play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." The settings were a cabin on shipboard and a hotel room in Paris during the year of 1923. The play was directed by Mrs. Shirley Oleson.

Cornelia and Emily were sailing for Europe -- alone. They were young and gay. While on shipboard, an attack of the measles put a damper on Cornelia's excitement. But her purpose to go to Paris was fulfilled when at last she had lessons with Monsieur De La Croix.

The play was very comical and was one that, we feel, Old Fort will never forget!

Old Fort Shocks Bettsville, 87 To 79

Scrappy Old Fort's Stockader basketeers dealt second place Bettsville's Seneca County League title hopes a staggering blow at home Friday night, winning the thriller, 87-79, to hand the Bobcats their third league loss.

Attica entered the night's activity with a league - leading 11-1 record.

"The game was tight throughout and Old Fort won it by outscoring Bettsville 30-24 in the fourth period.
